

My Dream

I dream of a country where truly all people are created equal

Where it doesn't matter how you look, feel, or communicate

I feel there is a hierarchy of importance

Wealthy people are the most valued

Individuals with a handicap are least valued

The country needs to realize that we are People too.

-John Calvin Henry